The Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property

The German Democratic Republic

The Government of the United States of America considers the accession of the German Democratic Republic to the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property as revised at Stockholm on July 14, 1967 to be effective as of December 4, 1975.

Consequently, an application filed in the German Democratic Republic on or after December 4, 1975, may form the basis for claiming a right of priority in an application filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

C. MARSHALL DANN,
Oct. 7, 1975. Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks.

MARKS PUBLISHED FOR OPPOSITION

The following marks are published in compliance with section 12(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946. Applications for the registration of marks in more than one class have been filed as provided in section 30 of said act as amended by Public Law 772, 87th Congress, approved Oct. 9, 1962, 76 Stat. 769. Opposition under section 13 may be filed within thirty days of the date of this publication. See Rules 2.101 to 2.105.

A separate fee of twenty-five dollars for opposing each mark in each class must accompany the opposition.

SECTION 1.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sept. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on and after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of June 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).

SECTION 2.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sept. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on and after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of June 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).
